"We're not going to sit down and do a visit here," declared yesterday.

"Mr. Smith, who is to be received by the King today, insisted that since the Ottawa Imperial conference a number of markets had been closed to Queensland.

"The Queensland government is very strongly opposed," he declared, "to the proposals recently put forward for purposes of limiting the sale in Great Britain of Queensland and Australian products.

"Our answer is: You import more foodstuffs from foreign countries than competition with British farmers from the Dominions.

"It is that argument, strongly supported by the Australian people, that I intend to put before the British ministers."

RODEO GOES DESPITE LAW IN BRITAIN

House of Lords Approves Bill Forbidding—But Show Goes On

LONDON, May 16.—The House of Lords last night approved in third reading the bill forbidding rodeos. The measure, which has already passed through the Commons, was designed to protect animals from unnecessary suffering.

Montreal, May 16.—"I've heard nothing about a bill forbidding rodeos, we're going ahead anyway and sailing as scheduled," Verne Allen, in charge of the Canadian and United States cowboys, stated last night.

The cowboys, many from the Calgary and the surrounding prairies, and the remainder mostly from Wyoming and Texas, are to leave Montreal later this week to participate in the Tex Austin National Sporting Club rodeo, an scheduled to take place at White City stadium, London, June 9 and 10.

Allen stated he had received no word from Austin, in London, making the arrangement for the show, but he said the new law has not to date been proclaimed, and there is still possibility it may not come into effect in time to stop the show.

Parade Thursday—Grocers Agree to "Awful" Men

DRUMHELLER, May 16.—Turned down the proposal of F. C. Moyer, M.L.A., that relief workers return to work until such time as the provincial premier returns to Edmonton, the striking men at a mass meeting held here Tuesday afternoon voted unanimously, with one exception, to continue their protest against government inaction and remain on strike.

Mr. Moyer made an effort to outline an adjustment of relief but advised the men that if they returned to work he would take a delegation to Edmonton upon the premier's return.

The committee announced that all grocers in the district had agreed to carry the strikers for a reasonable period if relief slips are not issued Wednesday.

Thursday a mass parade of all the strikers in the Drumheller valley will be held in the city. President George Moore, a member of the Canadian League executive, announced the ex-service men, carrying the Union Jack, would lead the parade and that on Communist slogans or red flags will be seen.

With provision made for continuing supply of foodstuffs to the strikers, local businessmen, some of whom replied to placards in the parade, today are feeling a little easier. The temper of the men at present is quiet.

FRENCH HOOVER WOULD DIE FOR DIAMOND QUEEN

NICE, France, May 16.—Georges Charlot, a dancer, shot himself on the lawn of Mabel Boll's new villa here Tuesday but it was trying to kill himself, police said, his aim was inaccurate.

Also, if the 27-year-old professional hostess was despairing because the "Queen of Diamonds" was about to throw him over, he is the police theory, the Countess Delafore ("Mabel Boll")'s present mood wouldn't care if he died. The Countess, divorced from the man who gave her the title, found Charlot in a pool of blood on the lawn when he returned to her villa at Saint Jean Cap Ferret after a shopping trip to Nice.

BRITISH OPPOSE 40-HOUR WEEK

LONDON, May 16.—The international labor conference which meets at Geneva in June is assured of evidence of the British government's refusal to support a 40-hour-week proposal. The decision was given last night in a white paper backed by 12 pieces of reasons.

HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY

HOLLYWOOD, May 16.—Motion picture racketeers slowly but surely are passing out of the picture. A few years ago Hollywood and the nation at large were overwhelmed with fellows who were making lucrative livings by working various rackets that were just enough within the law to keep them from wearing suits with horizontal stripes.

Capitalizing upon the widespread desire of persons throughout the country to get into the movie in some capacity, they gathered hundreds of thousands of dollars without really giving anything in return.

They kept out of trouble by the simple expedient of not actually promising anything. But their intimations were so strong that they sounded almost like promises to the average person.

One of the principal racketeers was to send a few cameramen around the country giving screen tests. These tests, it was stated, would be shown to a Hollywood director the customary charge of the person of whom the test was taken.

Thousands of movie-crazed women, who could view themselves as popular screen stars, went for the racket. They overlooked the fact that, nothing was said as to whether a director would be in a position to give out jobs even though someone with talent was seen.

Another stunt was to place advertisements offering to read movie manuscripts for a nominal sum. Suggest improvements and submit them to a motion picture studio. Nothing was said about getting the scenarios read at the studio, as no legitimate producer would have any dealings whatever with this crowd.

The first 1000 ladies entering the Capital Theatre on Thursday or Friday will receive a full size Chocolate WONDER BAR made by Patterson, Toronto.

Quadruplets Born

BATHURST, N.B., May 16.—Thirteen of four girls born at Petit Rocher yesterday to Yvonne Roy Doucet, wife of Lionel Doucet, were still alive. The first of the quadruplets was stillborn and the other three lived less than an hour later. The attending physician, said the infants were premature.

The men, with about 22 others, had come to safety from flames which threatened to trap them in a high building. Harris and Le-paluy started up the trail instead of following the others down the highway.

The fire was under control early today.

Completes Return Journey to Ft. Resolution

Beats Previous Earliest Furthest North Flight by Two Weeks—Brings Out Passengers and Fur.

A new record was established in northland flying on Tuesday when Pilot Archie McCullough of Canair Airways flew from Fort Resolution and returned to McMurtry in the afternoon with a load of six passengers and a heavy consignment of fur. This is the earliest furthest north flight on record being two weeks ahead of the previous earliest flight on Tuesday.

This is a good sign for an early break-up sign of which are heard from all sides, declared C. H. "Punch" Dickins, Canadian Airways manager, here on Wednesday.

Pilot McCullough was flying a Junkers machine. On its northward flight from McMurtry the machine was fully loaded with mail and express.

HEUS REACHES LAKE

Pilot Heus of Canadian Airways, landed at the new air base at Cooking Lake shortly before 2 p.m. on Wednesday.

The honor of being the first commercial plane to land at the new base was at the controls of a big Bellanca and carried four trappers and a heavy consignment of fur.

The passengers were D. Peterson, H. Price, Jack St. John, and Hugh D'Aoust. Stark has been trapping in the Barrenlands at the eastern end of Great Bear Lake.

The plane took off from Fort McMurtry for Cooking Lake at 11:40 a.m.

Stark had been flown into Fort McMurtry on May 30 last.

The plane was downed on the ice, leaving only 10 days for the break-up.

F. Hargreaves, Toronto mining engineer, has arrived at the new base on his way out, and is expected in here by the end of the week.

H. Dickinson, manager of Canadian Airways, left the plane on its arrival at Cooking Lake.

POLICE PROBE FAKE TICKETS

City police launched an investigation Monday to trace to the source a stream of forged 10 and 25 cent tickets which have been passing in the city swimming pools and on Wednesday two youths were detained for questioning, but were released after their parents had been notified.

Police are now in possession of the names of two teen age boys, and those questioned were the founders of the forgery.

The counterfeit passboards are good imitations of the genuine tickets, having been printed on a piece of paper, on some job press in the city. The forgery of the tickets has been reported by the swimming pool superintendents.

It was disclosed by police Wednesday that those using the tickets are employed by two printing concerns in the city and it is in one of these places that the tickets are being printed, investigators believe.

Almost perfect imitations of the real thing and carrying serial numbers, the counterfeit tickets are distinguished from the real ones by a slight variation of color on the cardboard.

Early Start on Commission Probe

An early start is expected on the investigation by special commission into the question of whether Alberta is entitled to compensation for lands alienated since formation of the province in 1905, according to Hon. George Housley, acting premier.

It had been thought that the commission would not commence next September but while in Ottawa recently, Premier Housley had urged an earlier start if possible.

Light showers have fallen in the Peace River district, but roads are in good condition, according to reports received by the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Motor Association.

Taking a short holiday, Mayor D. K. Knott left the city late Tuesday by automobile for Saskatoon and other points. He will be away for about three days, and during his absence Ald. J. H. Ogilvie is acting mayor.

Edmonton Public School Board committee on buildings and grounds will meet Thursday at 5 p.m. The school management committee will meet Friday at 11 a.m. C. M. P. and Detective Sergeant Tom Symons told the jury evidence given during Monday and Tuesday.

A sudden, violent windstorm on Tuesday evening cut short the flying of the balloons. Several members were carrying out student flying exercises when the windstorm came.

Members of the committee of the Ex-Servicemen's Association, held a meeting on Wednesday morning in connection with requests for increased relief which they placed before city council. Monday afternoon, the committee's decision had a meeting with the city council.

During the past few years motor traffic has increased considerably and traffic regulations have kept pace with the increase.

Some days there are too many regulations to the volume of traffic. Others there are not more than are required to guard the safety of the public.

Here are the opinions of several citizens:

ALD. J. H. OGILVIE: "While it may seem to some that there are too many traffic regulations in existence, the safety of the public must be considered at all times. However, with regard to parking regulations, I believe they ought to be framed so as not to be unduly restrictive. I don't see the necessity for limiting parking in the downtown areas on Sunday, the Wednesday afternoon half-holiday or public holidays. At the same time, I believe it is necessary to make it possible to park their cars in front of their homes, and at the exits of public halls, theatres or other places where a busy exit is necessary in case of emergency. I am pleased to hear that the committee on parking is making a study of the problem and that they could not find a simple solution. If sufficient numbers do not return, one or more of the camps in the city should be closed, and concentrated in others, declared the Alderman.

There is plenty of work in night most of it being rock, asphalt, and grading of which, he said, itself will be a hard labor.

The city is at present at work on the 10-mile stretch between the Peace River and the "Lucas" - Cadmon section having been completed.

"You, Tommy Tucker? Gee, I've heard about you before," Cogg said. "Please tell us how you have to sing a song before you eat."

"If she feeds me, she'll feed you," said Cogg. "I'm sure that that appeals to you. Come on, let's start and then some dainty food will come, ere long."

All the voices then rang out. "Well, goodness! What's this all about?" exclaimed a woman who stood in a doorway just nearby.

"Hi, mom!" said Tommy. "We want lunch! This singing was my happy lunch. I let these other folks join in and I guess you know why."

"You bet I do," his mother said. "All right, you wait, some food. And very soon the tiny voice, were having quite a meal."

When they had finished Tommy said, "I'm tired, so I must go to bed." "Well, we will run out and play," said Cogg. "That's how good we feel."

Doctor Brown sent a bill for ten dollars to the terrified-looking Mr. Bangs. The bill read: "To Services—$10.00."

Bangs in a fury of temper rushed to the doctor's office and shouted, "You're a robber! Think of it, five dollars a visit! It isn't worth it."

Doc Brown rewrote the bill and sent it—getting out of bed at 2:00 a.m., answering phone, disturbing wife, dressing, going to garage, cracking "The Lizard" two mile drive in cold, leaving baby's life bed to garage, waking wife, undressing, getting back into bed—$10.00.

The next morning Bangs appeared at Brown's front door with the $10.00, humble with apologies.

JURY HEARING EVIDENCE OF CONFESSIONS

James J. Frawley, K.C., and W. R. Manley, K.C., Wetaskiwin, are acting for the crown. Fred Jackson and A. W. Miller are for the defence.

Mr. Miller was checked up by Mr. Justice Tving while cross-examining Serg. Symons on investigations made with regard to the money found on Ed. Condon when arrested—money allegedly stolen from the slain stockpiper.

Mr. Miller wanted to know why Frank Condon had not been asked about this money.

His Lordship pointed out that the police must have known that information given by Frank Condon regarding Ed Condon could be used against the latter if given in the absence of Ed Condon.

Mr. Miller then discontinued this line of inquiry and desired from cross-examination shortly after.

DIRECT EXAMINATION

Mr. Frawley then resumed direct examination on points raised in cross-examination.

Serg. Symons made it clear that only a single question had been asked Frank Condon as to whether he had been in the room on the night of the murder.

The question had been asked at the end of the confession, and simply what Ed had done with the rifle.

On the suggestions of Mr. Miller that old Condon had been "tricked" into confessing, Mr. Frawley asked Serg. Symons if during his 18 years of service, he had ever been reprimanded by his superior or on a court on a charge of "tricking" a witness.

"Never," the detective firmly replied.

Mr. Miller then resumed cross-examination on an admission by old Condon to Serg. Symons that he had planned this thing some time before, but did not have the nerve to carry it out.

Mr. Miller wanted to know why this statement—allegedly made on November 27—hadn't been put into an earlier report, Serg. Symons said.

BAD-LUCK STUFF

By Judson Stuart

Hy and Lowe got a big hand.

They always did, ever since Hy Leslie met up with Warner Lowe, who certainly could write screaming funny gags all day long.

He had been doing fairly well in the small time with a magazine he had got together himself with this and that-most of the time-and that being stuff he had "borrowed" from the other fellow.

There had been a good deal of work of times and finally convinced that they ought to team up.

It was the strategy, or feeder. At first Hy Leslie was happy.

The team was making money—better than he could remember since the old days, when he was young to know the real valuable money.

Warner Lowe was a certain pain in the neck to Hy, and almost everyone else who got to know him.

He was a little bit of a trouble maker, always boasting about himself whenever he had a chance to do so. "I wrote the stuff," he coaxed the other fellow.

He was a good deal of a straight man together in a hard way. His easy-going to get a man to make up eccentric and recite the lines you give him.

Hy managed to put up with it because he was saving money and because chiefly, Lowe had been clever enough to sign him up for a long time.

It used to get on good little Hy Leslie's nerves to see Lowe jump into the dressing room after their first run-off some of the make-up that they might need for their next show.

explained that he had to leave for Preston on the 28th.

Inspector Tucker was then recalled and asked by Mr. Frawley what he would do to an officer who had taken a prisoner into a murder confession.

"I would discipline him—lay a charge against him," answered Inspector Tucker.

The response then went on to tell of the first thing dropped by old Condon—his rifle. "He told me plenty more if I wanted to."

Condon Confession Admitted Before Jury

Confessions in the Condon case were allowed to go before the jury by Mr. Justice Tving.

Frank Condon, Buck Creek homicide suspect, charged with the murder of Carl Anderson, backwoods stockpiper, on the night of November 15 last, Mr. Justice Tving, presiding, handed down a ruling to this effect after a "trial-within-a-trial," which lasted two days and during which the jury was excited while all the evidence surrounding the confession was presented.

The confessions were held to be voluntary by His Lordship, who felt bluntly that it was all a question of the jury, who had preferred the stories told by a respectable police officer, rather than that told by Condon, who had stood at the admissibility proceedings on points raised in cross-examination.

Ed Condon, who was found guilty by a jury last week in the same charge, was named in the jury's confession as being the murderer.

Following His Lordship's ruling, the jury retired. Condon admitted he had given all over again to the jury in effect that Ed had done with the rifle, though it has been in progress.

James J. Frawley, K.C., and W. R. Manley, K.C., Wetaskiwin, are acting for the crown. Fred Jackson and A. W. Miller are for the defence.

ALL DONE FOR YOU

When court resumed Tuesday afternoon the defence continued with the direct examination of Carl Anderson with regard to a letter written to his wife, Mrs. Evalina Condon, in which he said, "All that was done for you."

Asked why he wrote this letter, Condon blurted out that he believed the boy's story.

Condon continued to tell of a watch, belonging to Carl Anderson, which he had found in the possession of his son, Ed.

Asked why he was going later to Inspector Tucker to tell up the confession, on the grounds that he was in the room with him, Condon blurted out that he believed the boy's story.

The part about trying to bribe Carl Anderson, he meant, he said, that he would be willing to give up his farm and all he had to help his son, Ed.

Condon claimed that police told him he couldn't have a lawyer.

VAUGHN ANSWERS

Cross-examination by Mr. Frawley then continued. Condon admitted it wasn't until after he was released that he learned that he had been in the room with the murderer.

British Beauty New Hollywood Queen

"Art does not have national boundaries. That is why I can live in Hollywood and still love England." Such was the philosophy expressed by Diana Wynyard, tall, class-distinct actress, who has become undisputed queen of the fast-growing British colony here. Official recognition of Miss Wynyard's position was given when she was nominated by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as one of the three best actresses of the year.

From similar source it was learned that Miss Wynyard had been on the lookout for trouble, following a disturbance last week-end when the Governor-General visited Kingston to inspect the Royal Military College.

At that time a number of convicts had been in the room, and equipment set up in a building. A letter was intercepted when coming into the penitentiary indicating a plot to create a disturbance.

Most of the convicts had been locked up for the night when the fire broke out in the change room. Frantically the inmates tried to get out of the room, but were prevented by the fire.

Believing flames, smoke poured out of the change room on the second floor of the south wing, known as the shop or shift dormitory where the prisoners housed on Oct. 1, 1932, in the general riot.

Condon blurted out that he believed the boy's story.

THE ECONOMY STRAIGHT

If you want a Straight Eight for your money, get a Pontiac. It's not merely a beautiful automobile... it's the second best looking car of the year. First place being taken by a car costing over $3,500. Pontiac's lines are long, slanting, perfectly proportioned. Airstreaming is artistic without being extreme. Here's the kind of a car any man would be proud to own!

Smoothness compares with smartness in this new model. Knight-Action Wheels deliver a thrilling "Floating Ride" that levels out every bump! Extra weight, scientifically balanced, makes the car ride as smoothly as a train. A Sway Bar keeps the car steady, giving you the turn. And big, handsomely appointed interiors provide plenty of leg-room, head-room and old-fashioned, easy-chair comfort. In fact, throughout its make-up, Pontiac is a big car, giving you all the important big car advancements at a comparatively low price.

We've tried to tell you a little about this magnificent motor car. The rest you'll discover by a demonstration. Drive the new Pontiac... personally. See if you don't agree that here is one car that answers the requirements of the entire family!

"We expect to fly to Siberia every month except November and December, the season of especially heavy storms," he said.
